Bodies of Rights Trio Are Found in Mississippi

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced today that two of the three bodies found Tuesday near Philadelphia, Miss., had been identified as those of civil rights workers missing for six weeks. Examination of the third body is continuing, Hoover said.

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Two of the three bodies found buried in a recently constructed earthen dam near Philadelphia, Miss., were identified early today as missing civil rights workers Andy Goodman and Mickey Schwerner.

All three bodies were undergoing pathological tests early today at the University of Mississippi Medical center where they were brought after being found near Philadelphia late Tuesday.

Examination of the third body was continuing. Announcement of the identification of Goodman and Schwerner was made in Washington by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The Greenwood, Miss., office of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee said it had been told by the Jackson FBI office that the third body had been identified as James Chaney, the Negro companion of Goodman and Schwerner.

There was no immediate confirmation of this from the FBI. The three vanished June 21 after being freed from jail at Philadelphia where they had been arrested on a speeding charge.

They had been held in jail at Philadelphia nearly six hours after Chaney was arrested on a speeding charge.

The last person known to have seen them was Neshoba County deputy sheriff Cecil Price, who said he followed them a short distance after their release as they drove south toward Meridian.

The Meridian Star quoted an authoritative source as saying the bodies found in the dam were those of two white males and a Negro male. The source, according to the newspaper, said the bodies were found 20 feet from the top of the loose earth structure, which was being built late in June when Schwerner, Goodman and Chaney vanished.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio had been located 15 miles north of Philadelphia two days after they disappeared.

The property is owned by Olen Burrage of Philadelphia. Burrage was reported at the site while the excavation was under way.

Schwerner had been working in a civil rights project at Meridian since last February. He had driven to Oxford, Ohio, the week before his disappearance to bring back to Mississippi some of the summer civil rights volunteers, including Goodman.

The three drove from Meridian to the Philadelphia area early on the morning of June 21 to check a burned out Negro church which had been used for civil rights workers.

Goodman, in the advance guard of some 600 summer volunteers, had been scheduled to work in the Philadelphia area.

Public Apology Made to Dog

SOHAM, England (AP)—Bert Peacock, 67, made a public apology to a dog today.

Peacock had complained to police that Tina, hairdresser Ruth Harvey's 2-year-old Alsatian, bit his son. The police found another dog was the culprit.

The Soham Advertiser carried this advertisement today:

"Mr. B. Peacock wishes to apologize for a false accusation against Mrs. R. Harvey's dog."

Support Is General for U.S. Action

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican and Democratic leaders agreed today to seek swift bi-partisan Senate approval of a declaration of support of President Johnson's actions in the Southeast Asian crisis.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the majority and minority leaders, reached the agreement in a conference in the Senate chamber in advance of today's Senate session.

Declaring "Speed is of essence," Dirksen said he believed a resolution expressing bipartisan support of the President should receive immediate action, without waiting for the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees to clear it first.

Mansfield said he agreed. Thus, a vote might come before tonight on a historic resolution throwing the Senate's support behind the President's declaration that the United States is determined "to take all necessary measures" to defend peace and freedom in Southeast Asia.

The two leaders held their meeting in the Senate at Dirksen's desk, with newsmen clustered around them and able to hear their every word.

Johnson requested the resolution in a talk to the nation Tuesday night in which he disclosed the United States had launched an air strike against North Vietnamese gun boats and shore facilities in retaliation for two attacks by PT boats on U.S. destroyers.

The President had discussed the resolution earlier at a meeting with congressional leaders and Mansfield said there had been no opposition to it.

Slow Cool Front Crossing State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A slow moving cool front is courting Arkansas with promises of showers and lower temperatures. But the respite may be hardly noticeable.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted a maximum temperature of 106 in Arkansas today, still plenty hot, but well below the top reading of 111 Tuesday.

Light showers moved into East Central Arkansas today, cooling acres scorched with 100-degree temperatures and above Tuesday. Rain is forecast for all sections of the state today and Thursday.

High temperatures ranged from the 111 at Searcy Tuesday to 101 at Memphis. Other readings included Fort Smith 110, Little Rock 108, Pine Bluff and Hot Springs 107, Fayetteville and El Dorado 106, Walnut Ridge 105 and Harrison and Texarkana 103.

Overnight minimum readings ranged from 70 at Fayetteville to 80 at Pine Bluff.

Riot No Breach of Meeting, Say N. J. Leaders

NEW YORK (AP)—Three of six top Negro leaders say the Jersey City, N.J., riots are not a planned breach of the recent "summit meeting" call for curtailment or cessation of civil rights demonstrations until after election day.

Leaders of national civil rights organizations issued the call for the moratorium last Wednesday, after the New York and Rochester riots. The Jersey City violence broke out Sunday.

The summit statement said Negroes should concentrate on voter registration and political activity until after the Nov. 3 election.

Two of the six leaders of the summit meeting—James Farmer of the Congress of Racial Equality and John Lewis of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee—later dissociated themselves from the moratorium call, although both emphasized they were against violence.

Both Farmer and Lewis reached in Washington, said the Jersey City riots had nothing to do with the moratorium because they were not demonstrations.

Roy E. Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Jersey City had a "spontaneous outbreak" and the NAACP chairman there is "working hard with city authorities to prevent further violence." Wilkins also was in Washington.

But A. Philip Randolph, an AFL-CIO vice president who also heads the Negro American Labor Council, said "undoubtedly it (Jersey City) is the first major breach of the moratorium."

In Atlanta, a secretary to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said King did not have any comment immediately.

Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League, was attending the organization's convention in Louisville, Ky., and could not be reached for comment.

Goldwater Backs Action by Johnson

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, dramatically supporting President Johnson on Viet Nam, flew back to the nation's capital today.

"We cannot allow the American flag to be shot at anywhere on earth," Goldwater said in backing the President.

It was an unusual end to an unusual vacation. For Goldwater not only supported Johnson's stand; he issued a statement saying so more than an hour before the public knew what that stand was.

Here's the way it happened: The Republican presidential candidate was on the Sundance, an 83-foot borrowed yacht, cruising off California's Catalina Island in perfect lolling weather.

But if the waters were clam there, they weren't off Viet Nam, where U.S. destroyers were being attacked.

Three times Johnson tried to reach Goldwater at sea. Three times he failed because of what a Goldwater news aide called "lousy reception."

When Goldwater finally reached shore, he called the President at 7:07 p.m., California time, listened to what Johnson planned to say, and promptly gave this statement:

"I am sure that every American will subscribe to the actions outlined in the President's statement."

"I believe it is the only thing that he can do under the circumstances. We cannot allow the American flag to be shot at anywhere on earth if we are to retain our respect and prestige."

At the airport before leaving for Washington, Goldwater told a newsmen of his talk with the President.

"I told him that I thought all Americans would stand behind his decision," Goldwater said.

There was no connection between his sudden departure and the Viet Nam crisis. It had been announced previously that he would leave today.

Chinese Issue Warning on 'U.S. Attack'

HONG KONG (AP)—The Chinese Communist New Evening Post warned the United States today that Red China "will not wait until the flames of war come too close" before retaliating against what it called provocative U.S. attacks in the Tonkin Gulf area.

"This is a very serious crisis and we cannot predict what may happen," the Hong Kong paper said, "but the United States will have to bear all the consequences."

The paper did not specify what form of retaliatory action Red China would take.

The editorial was the first Chinese Communist reaction to President Johnson's announcement that U.S. air strikes were under way against Communist supply facilities in North Viet Nam.

There was no direct comment from Peking. But the New Evening Post is owned and operated by Chinese Communist officials and normally follows the Peking line rigidly.

"North Viet Nam and China are as close together as lips and teeth," the paper said. "North Viet Nam has already warned the United States that it will take defensive action. China has also warned the United States it is no going to sit idly by and watch its fraternal partner, North Viet Nam, invaded."

Supersonic Jets Sent to Viet Nam

By MACOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—The United States rushed six supersonic Air Force F102 jet fighters to Saigon today, the Vietnamese air force was put on alert, and tanks rumbled into the key northern base of Da Nang.

The swift air and ground military buildup was effected to meet any attacks from Communist North Viet Nam or Red China that might come with the crisis in the Gulf of Tonkin.

American military personnel in the 1 and 2 Corps regions in Viet Nam's North were restricted to their bases in an unofficial "grey alert" status that also enforced a 9 p.m. curfew.

The 1 Corps region, with headquarters at Da Nang, is regarded as a logical target for a Communist attack.

American sources reported the situation was tense in the area and that air activity on the Da Nang strip was "fairly heavy."

Some sources said it was possible that planes used to attack North Viet Nam bases today operated from Da Nang. The air base, a major one, can handle modern jet aircraft.

The five Vietnamese army divisions in the 1 and 2 Corps regions were put on alert. The Vietnamese high command in Saigon was reported to have issued top-secret directives.

U.S. Bombs North Viet Nam Bases in Retaliation Strike

LBJ Declares Aggression Must Be Hit

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—President Johnson declared today that peace requires a firm response to aggression, and that is the reason for U.S. air strikes at North Vietnamese attackers.

The world must never forget, he said, "that aggression unchallenged is aggression unleashed."

In effect, he told Red China to keep hands off and not enlarge the war.

"To any who may be tempted to support—or to widen—the present aggression," Johnson said, "I say this: There is no threat to any peaceful power from the United States of America. But there can be no peace by aggression and no immunity from reply. That is what is meant by the actions taken yesterday."

Johnson spoke at ceremonies dedicating a journalism building as the first unit of a $15-million communications center at Syracuse University, a gift of the university from publisher Samuel Newhouse.

Johnson flew from Washington to Syracuse after ordering the air strikes Tuesday. On the way, he was briefed in the air on the latest reports on the results, which included hits on an oil depot, torpedo boats, and other facilities, with a loss of two U.S. planes.

Against this background, the President's address was obviously aimed to the peoples of the world as much as to those of his own country and his immediate audience.

He emphasized that this country's purpose is peace, and noted that the incidents in the Gulf of Tonkin are being put before the United Nations.

"We welcome—and we invite—the scrutiny of all men who seek peace, for peace is the only purpose of the course we pursue," Johnson said.

And he declared that no friendly country need fear, and no foe hope, "that this is a nation divided in this election."

No Profit Periods on Broilers

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says it foresees no prolonged periods of profit-making by the broiler industry.

Recent patterns of this industry indicate, the department says, that the profit periods—when prices received for broilers are above production costs—are not likely to last more than three or four consecutive months.

Operated on a mass-production and integrated basis, the industry is capable of changing its production patterns on short notice. Herein lies the reason why profit periods are expected to be short in character.

A department report explains that when prices of broilers are favorable, expansion in production is made quickly. The result usually is an increase in output that turns prices downward again. The low prices result in production curtailments followed by favorable prices, then a new period of overproduction and low prices.

Competition is intense and many concerns are reluctant to curtail output very much lest they lose customers to competitors.

Much of the production is financed by feed companies and others who contract with producers.

Similar ups and downs take place in the production of beef cattle and hogs, but it takes much longer to make the shifts. A chance in production of hogs can take place within a year's time. It takes much longer in the case of beef cattle.

Barbers Told No Refusals

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—New Jersey's barbers were told today that refusal to cut the hair of Negroes could result in license suspensions.

In a letter to all barbers, the New Jersey Board of Barber Examiners said: "A statement by any licensed barber given as a reason for denying service to non-white persons that he did not know how to cut or shave their hair would be untrue."

Wallace in Attack on Washington

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Gov. George C. Wallace coupled a plea for congressional redistricting today with an angry attack on what he called "the repulsive stench" in Washington.

He told members of the Alabama Legislature meeting in special session that it is their duty to divide the state into new congressional districts. But he emphasized that his call for the session was not prompted by "fear of the federal court system."

A three-judge federal court has said it will redistrict the state unless the legislature does it before the 1966 elections.

Wallace, in a prepared speech, made no mention of the fact that he summoned the legislature at this time to consider redistricting legislation in the face of a growing Republican threat to unseat some of the Democratic congressmen in the state-at-large election in November.

But there was hope within the congressional delegation that passage of a redistricting bill would lessen GOP chances.

No redistricting bill has been enacted since Alabama lost one House seat because of the 1960 census. In the absence of district lines, the congressmen are elected statewide.

Wallace urged the legislature to join other states in petitioning for a constitutional amendment to nullify the Supreme Court's population-only decision affecting legislative apportionment.

Wallace reviewed his recently abandoned presidential campaign and what he called his battle for "the preservation of constitutional government, our Judeo-Christian moral and ethical values, and our Anglo-Saxon tradition of justice and jurisprudence."

In bitter words, he declared: "There is a repulsive stench rising from the shores of the Potomac. It is occasioned by the crime, the corruption, the moral decay, the debauchery, the drunken revelries, perversions, and moral degeneracy, commonplace in the nation's capital."

"It shocks the sensibilities of decent God-fearing people from coast to coast and boundary to boundary."

But, he said, "there is evidence of an increased spiritual awakening on the part of the American people, of an intention to return to fundamental virtues and values that made this nation great."

The redistricting issue arose out of the past failure of the legislature to agree on congressional boundaries.

That, coupled 4th graf 153.

Will Help Clear Up Muddy Lake

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Planning Commission promised Monday to help Lake Village find a way to clear up the south end of Lake Chicot, which is muddied each year by a drainage bayou from improvement districts in the area.

The north part of the lake, where Lake Chicot State Park is located, is clear. A dam across the middle of the lake keeps it from getting muddy, since the drainage bayou empties into the south end.

W. R. Halfacre, technical planner with the Planning Commission, said the muddy condition was bad for the tourist trade and the economy of the area.

Reinforcement Being Sent to Troubled Spot

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States moved today to a showdown in Southeast Asia today as President Johnson sent U.S. Navy planes in a series of attacks against Red PT boats and their shore facilities in North Viet Nam.

And as a precaution against a Communist counterthrust from North Viet Nam or Red China, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara disclosed that "substantial military reinforcements" are being moved into Southeast Asia.

The President called the air strikes a "positive reply" to attacks on U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin off North Viet Nam.

"Yet our response, for the present, will be limited and fitting," he added. "We Americans know, although others appear to forget, the risks of spreading conflict—we still seek no wider war."

The President, facing the most explosive international crisis since the Cuban missile showdown, announced the U.S. air assaults in a somber, pre-midnight address to the nation Tuesday night.

Even as he was speaking, Johnson said, "air action is now in execution against gun boats and certain supporting facilities in North Viet Nam which have been used in these hostile operations" against the U.S. ships.

Johnson said Sunday's PT boat attacks on the destroyer Maddox were repeated Tuesday against two destroyers and "we believe at least two of the attacking boats were sunk. There were no U.S. losses."

The President said he had directed Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson to raise "immediately and urgently" before the U.N. Security Council the torpedo boat assaults that the United States charges were unprovoked and in international waters.

Communist North Viet Nam, in a broadcast early today, asserted the American charge of another PT boat raid Tuesday was "sheer fabrication by the U.S. imperialists aimed at covering up their illegal acts which brazenly violated the security of the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam and are aggravating further the situation in Southeast Asia."

A brief statement broadcast by Radio Hanoi said the U.S. announcement was "a sheer fabrication by the U.S. imperialists aimed at covering up their illegal acts which brazenly violated the security of the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam and are aggravating further the situation in Southeast Asia."

The broadcast quoted the North Viet Nam news agency and said the news agency had been officially authorized to make the statement.

It was the first North Vietnamese comment heard in Tokyo on the attack. There was no reference to losses suffered by North Viet Nam.

The Pentagon said two of the Red PT boats which attacked the U.S. destroyers Maddox and C. Turner Joy Tuesday were probably sunk and two others damaged.

The text of the Radio Hanoi report read:

"The U.S. Pentagon has alleged that last (Tuesday) night four torpedo boats of the DRV (Democratic Republic of Viet Nam); attacked two U.S. warships in the international waters, Viet Nam news agency is authorized to declare that this is a sheer fabrication by the U.S. imperialists aimed at covering up their illegal acts which brazenly violated the security of the DRV and are aggravating further the situation in Southeast Asia."

Errors Prove Downfall of the Yankees

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Doesn't anyone here want that pennant?

That was the big question in the American League today after the three top contenders played a kick-the-game-away Tuesday night.

Here's the way it went:

The first-place New York Yankees held a 1-0 lead on Mickey Mantle's homer and were cruising behind ace left-hander Whitey Ford when sure-fingered Tony Kubek suddenly committed two errors in two innings and helped Kansas City to a 5-1 victory.

The second-place Baltimore Orioles were locked in a scoreless battle with Los Angeles until the fourth inning when Norm Siebern dropped a two-out foul pop and the Angels rushed across five runs and went on to a 5-0 triumph.

The third-place Chicago White Sox were leading Detroit 3-1 and left-hander Gary Peters had allowed only a bunt single through seven innings when he came apart, was slammed for four runs and a 4-3 defeat by the Tigers.

The frantic fumbling left the Yankees one percentage point ahead of the Orioles with the White Sox a full game back.

Elsewhere, Harmon Killebrew stroked three singles and his 37th homer, leading a five-homer barrage that carried Minnesota to a 12-4 walloping of Boston and Steve Ridzik preserved Washington's 42 victory over Cleveland with 7 1-3 innings of two-hit relief pitching.

San Francisco moved to within 1 1/2 games of the National League leading Philadelphia Phillies, who were idle, by edging the New York Mets 4-3 in 14 innings. Third-place Cincinnati swept Milwaukee 5-2 and 4-2, the Los Angeles Dodgers took two from Pittsburgh 5-1, and 10-7 and the Chicago Cubs shut out St. Louis 4-0.

Ford, who had missed two turns on the mound because of a hip injury, got himself into a jam in the sixth when he issued walks to Ed Charles and Jim Gentile. Kubek helped him stay in it.

When Doc Edwards doubled, scoring Charles, Kubek let Tom Tresh's throw from the outfield get by him and Gentile also scored, bringing in the lead run.

In the seventh, Kubek let Wayne Causey get to second base by throwing wild on his grounder and Charles doubled Causey home.

Ford, losing his fourth against 12 victories, pitched a strong game but his control was off. He gave up only four hits, but walked six.

Dave Vinayard started for the Orioles and ran into difficulty in the fourth when the Angels loaded the bases with two out on two walks and a double by Willie Smith. Pitcher Don Lee then lofted a foul pop that Siebern dropped.

Lee immediately dropped a single into left, scoring two runs. Bob Perry doubled home another, and after Dick Hall replaced Vinayard, Jim Fregosi wrapped it up with a two-run single.

Peters, 12-6, had allowed only Jerry Lumpe's safe bunt in the third inning when Jake Wood opened the eighth for the Tigers with a single.

Singles by Lumpe and George Thomas brought in one run before Don Demeter crashed a three-run homer that cracked the White Sox' five-game winning streak.

Killebrew's three-run homer broke open a tight game in the seventh with the Twins leading FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Eight top American Legion baseball teams open competition today in the annual state tournament.

The winner will represent the state in the regional Legion tournament in Memphis next week. The Legion World Series will be held in Little Rock later this month.

In first round games today, El Dorado met West Memphis, Hope played Fort Smith Kerwin, Morrilton met Walnut Ridge and Little Rock Wilkerson Diesel faced Fort Smith Vehicle.

The double elimination tournament ends Sunday afternoon.

Giant Hurling Staff Is Crippled

NEW YORK (AP) — The San Francisco Giants' pitching staff is in the hospital.

Juan Marichal, the ace right-hander of the pennant contenders called by Manager Al Dark "my pitching staff," may be lost to the Giants for nearly two weeks with a back ailment.

The latest setback for the Giants came Tuesday night and followed the recent loss of another starter, Jack Sanford. Sanford underwent an operation last month for removal of an elbow obstruction and is lost for the season.

Marichal, a 25-game winner last season who was tied with Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax for the most victories in the majors going into Tuesday night's program, was taken to Harkness Pavilion for extensive examination and will remain there at least through Friday.

X-rays taken Tuesday were negative and the ailment was described as muscular, but estimates were that the 15-game winner could be out for two weeks.

Marichal, 15-5 with a 2.55 earned run average and a "brilliant" ratio of 144 strikeouts to 35 walks, said the pain began a week ago and has increased.

Halas Says Bear Offense Is Clicking

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — There's bad news for the College All-Stars. George Halas thinks his Chicago Bears' offense finally is beginning to click for Friday night's game at Soldier Field.

"For the first time in 18 days I am encouraged by a showing of cohesion and proper execution by our offense," Halas said Tuesday at the Bears' camp in Bensenville, Ill.

"Our defense came around after the sixth day of camp and has been improving every day," said the 69-year-old owner-coach. "Now our defense is beginning to perk up."

The Bears' offense never did kindle any burst of enthusiasm last year, when the team drove to the National Football League championship behind a solid ball-hungry defense.

"I think we will be inclined to open up more this season," said Halas. "The addition of Rich Kreitling and Gary Barnes gives us added strength on the left side. Of course, the club still is shaken by the tragic loss of John Farrington and Willie Galimore."

The Bears' first offensive unit to open against the All-Stars will have Bill Wade at quarterback, Ron Bull at left half, Johnny Morris at right half and Joe Marconi at fullback. Kreitling, former Cleveland Brown, is the No. 1 split end. Of course, Mike Ditka is the tight end.

A future Bear, Mike Reilly of Iowa, was one of the two co-captains named Tuesday by the All-Stars. Reilly, a linebacker, was the Bears' No. 4 draft. He is rated a good bet to make the ball club when he joins the pros after Friday's game.

George Mira, the fabulous quarterback from Miami, was picked as the other cocaptain. The professionals hold a 19-9 edge, with two ties in the long series, sponsored by the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc. The All-Stars won last year, upsetting Green Bay 20-17, but the Bears are favored.

Election officials found that Ankeman's name was omitted on ballots used in the three city wards, but was on those used in the townships.

Since he was unopposed for the Democratic nomination, the officials agreed that nothing had to be done about the omission.

Johnson spoke slowly, deliberately, bearing down on his words, and evoked a thunder of applause from thousands of listeners when he declared that deliberate, unprovoked attacks have been answered.

He got another round when he said aggression had been answered with action because aggression unchallenged is aggression unleashed.

The chief executive stood there, dressed in a black silk academic robe, wearing a mortarboard hat with a special gold tassel, using a Teleprompter to make sure of his words.

Sitting behind him was Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who once had hopes of being the Republican presidential nominee against him.

The man who got the nomination, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, gave his support Tuesday night for the course the President has taken.

And Johnson said today, "We are one nation united and indivisible" on the matter of peace imperiled by aggressors.

Just before he talked, Johnson was on the telephone with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara in Washington, getting up-to-the-minute reports on the outcome of the air strikes against Vietnamese torpedo boats and shore bases.

He arranged to meet immediately upon his return to Washington, with McNamara, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and McGeorge Bundy, White House Adviser on national security affairs.

Could Stave Off Apportionment

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee gave speedy 10-2 approval today to a bill under which states could stave off for two years or more court-ordered legislative reapportionment.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., had asked for the action as a preliminary to a move to attach the measure to some major legislation certain to reach President Johnson's desk.

Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., reported the vote when he came from a closed meeting of the committee. Keating said he took no position on the legislation, merely voting "present." He did not disclose who cast the two negative votes.

Thinks Fgn. Bill Will Be Slashed

By BENNETT S. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse said the Senate may begin voting today on his proposals to cut over $500 million from the $3,466,700,000 foreign aid authorization bill.

The Oregon Democrat, leading off the fight against the House-passed measure, called the foreign aid program "a colossal failure as a deterrent to communism" in a 2 1/2-hour speech Monday.

He told newsmen he planned a batch of other amendments aimed at "reforming" foreign aid policies and would seek roll-call votes on them later in the week. But he said he was ready for voting on his money-cutting proposals.

Whether voting could start apparently depends on the speed with which the Senate acts on an interest equalization tax measure which temporarily sidetracked the foreign aid bill Monday.

The tax measure would levy an excise on purchases of foreign securities by Americans. It is designed to reduce the drain of U.S. funds to overseas countries.

Morse accused foreign aid administrators of "shocking inefficiency."

He condemned "handing out money and weapons" with the idea they will promote political stability, or keep friendly governments in power, or prop up a "bloated military establishment in a foreign country."

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee recommended the $3,516,700,000 authorization requested by President Johnson be reduced by only $50 million.

The House has approved the authorization by the full amount asked for, but in acting on the follow-up appropriations bill — which provides the funds for the program while the authorization sets only the ceiling — cut foreign aid to $3,316,572,400.

Arkla to Build Overhead Line

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. has applied for an Army Engineers permit to construct an overhead pipeline crossing on the White River in Jackson County.

The 24-inch line would span the river from steel towers 964 feet apart, about 11 miles downstream from Newport.

Seek Boys Who Stole Skeleton

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Police are looking for boys who stole a skeleton and scared residents of a suburban Copenhagen apartment house.

The skeleton, nicknamed Jokum, vanished from a neighborhood school's natural history department Monday night.

Tuesday an 8-year-old girl in an apartment house answered a knock on the door of her apartment. On the landing outside was Jokum.

The girl ran screaming back into the apartment.

As her father jumped to the door, the skeleton fell in his arms. The staircase echoed to female screams and male curses as neighbors hurried out.

One man said he saw at least three boys running out of the house.

World Cotton Program Is Considered

WASHINGTON (AP) — A world-wide cotton promotion program is being considered by the International Cotton Advisory Committee.

At a recent meeting of delegates from 38 countries which are members of the committee, concern was expressed over a declining trend in world cotton consumption and an upturn in use of man-made fibers.

Another meeting probably will be held here later to consider plans for broad promotion and an expanded research program. The latter would be designed to show farmers how to reduce production costs—and thus prices—on and new uses of the fiber crop.

"With an expanding world population, most of it ill-clad, it would be ironical to accept that there is too much cotton," said a statement adopted by the committee at a meeting held recently in Frankfurt, West Germany.

The committee said facilities for the production of synthetic fibers in this country are expected to increase despite government programs designed to make cotton cheaper for mills.

"In many other industrialized countries also, cotton is likely to continue to lose markets to the man-made fibers," it said. "If these developments occur, there

Communist North Viet Nam or Red China that the crisis in the Gulf of Tonkin might generate.

A U.S. spokesman announced the jet fighters were on the way. Other sources said some of the F102's arrived in South Viet Nam this morning from Clark Field, in the Philippines.

South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Khanh, after a conference with U.S. Ambassador Maxwell Taylor and an eight-hour Cabinet meeting, announced his government "supports the firm reaction of the U.S. to the crisis in the Gulf of Tonkin."

The organization of a unified command in South Viet Nam, similar to the one created in South Korea during the Korean War, appeared imminent. A general war alert in South Viet Nam also appeared imminent.

North Viet Nam, in its first comment on the developments off its coast, acknowledged the clash Sunday between North Vietnamese PT boats and the U.S. destroyer Maddox. But it said the Pentagon's report that four PT boats had attacked two U.S. destroyers in international waters Tuesday was a "sheer fabrication."

Radio Hanoi charged that U.S. ships and planes had been violating and shelling its territory. It said America's "provocative, sabotage and aggressive acts will be severely punished."

In Bangkok, Thailand, headquarters of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, the United States called an urgent meeting today of the permanent SEATO council. SEATO's members — the United States, Britain, Australia, France, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines and Thailand — are pledged to defend the area against Communist aggression.

An unconfirmed report said the U.S. Pacific fleet has been placed on alert and a major show of force was expected off the coast of North Viet Nam.

Top South Vietnamese and American military leaders were in conference today, and the organization of a unified command similar to the one created in South Korea during the Korean War appeared imminent.

A general war alert in South Viet Nam also appeared imminent.

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor met for half an hour with South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Khanh to discuss the U.S. announcements of attacks by North Vietnamese PT boats on U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin and U.S. retaliatory attacks announced by President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in South Viet Nam, conferred separately with South Vietnamese Defense Minister Maj. Gen. Tran Thien Khiem.

The South Vietnamese Cabinet went into emergency session after Taylor's report to Khanh.

Despite the deepening crisis, a U.S. spokesman said there was no immediate expectation of evacuating any of the 700 dependents of U.S. civilians in South Viet Nam.

American civilians were being asked to take "normal precautions," a spokesman said. This means staying at home.

Vietnamese police were ordered to try to find out the reaction of cells of the Communist Viet Cong to the developments along the coast of North Viet Nam.

While President Johnson did not specify what North Vietnamese supporting installations had been attacked, U.S. officials here said it was presumed the installations were on the North Vietnamese land mass itself.

Americans in Saigon seemed confused and uncertain about the developments. But there was no unusual activity in the city of Saigon itself.

American officials near communications facilities hung over teletype machines waiting for announcements from Washington.

"It sure looks like war, doesn't it?" an Army colonel said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. aircraft splintered two dozen North Vietnamese PT boats to day and made rubble of bases from which they had attacked U.S. naval vessels. The retaliatory strike gave thundering emphasis to a promise from President Johnson:

"No peace by aggression and no immunity from reply."

The President issued his stern warning in an address at Syracuse, N.Y., on the heels of a Pentagon news conference in which Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara reported the outcome of the explosive response to two attacks by Red torpedo boats on American destroyers in international waters off the Gulf of Tonkin.

McNamara's summary: Two U.S. aircraft downed by ground fire in 64 sorties from the carriers Ticonderoga and Constellation.

Twenty-five PT boats destroyed or damaged.

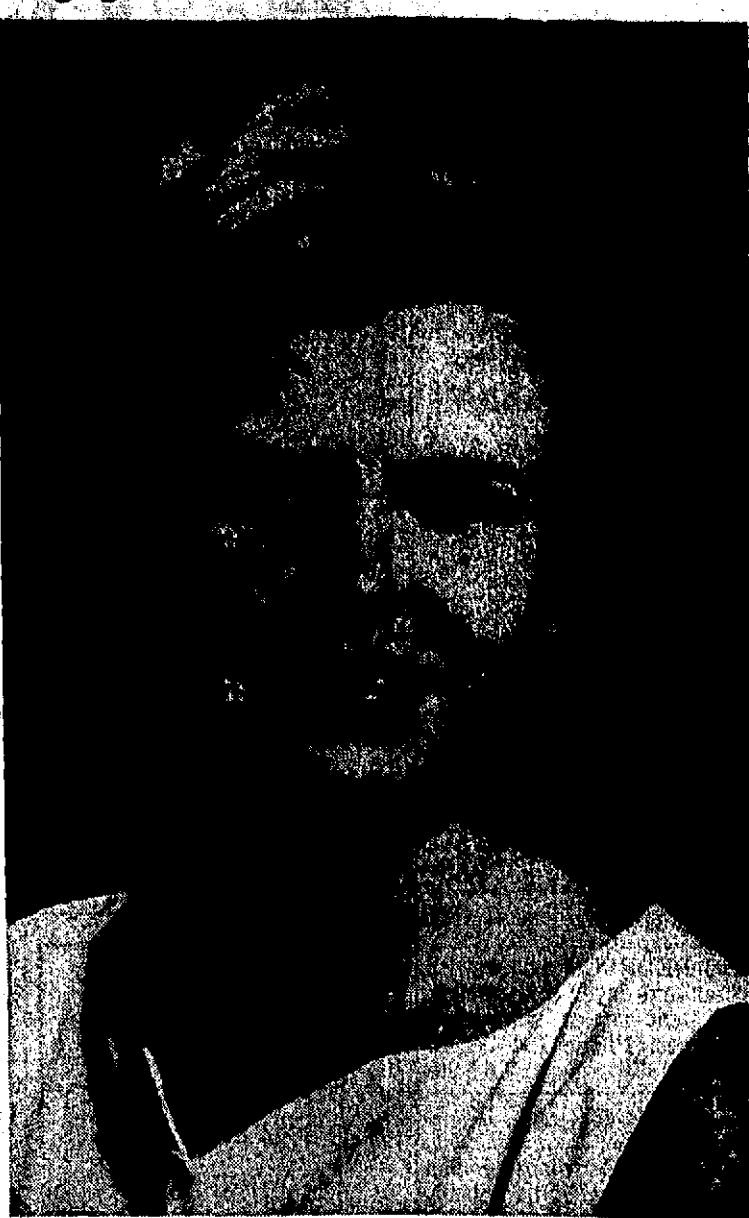

Four shore bases heavily damaged and an oil depot wrecked.

These were other highlights of developments in the crisis that came suddenly to fever heat late Tuesday:

Johnson gave the word in a somberly phrased address to the nation just before midnight that the strike was under way. But he pledged that "we still seek no wider war" and in an apparent bid to the Reds to back away he said the response "for the present, will be limited and fitting."

He had a word of caution for others who "appear to forget the risks of spreading conflict."

Engagement Announced

Miss Brenda Kay Vickers

Mr. and Mrs. Riley W. Vickers announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Brenda Kay to Bob Richard Steed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivy H. Steed of Emmet, Ark.

The wedding will be an event of August 28 in the chapel of the First Methodist Church.

stroyed or damaged.

But he pledged that "we still seek no wider war" and in an apparent bid to the Reds to back away he said the response "for the present, will be limited and fitting."

He had a word of caution for others who "appear to forget the risks of spreading conflict."

—McNamara in a late night session with newsmen at the Pentagon reportedly briefly on the strike then under way and said that as a precaution the United States is moving substantial military reinforcements to Southeast Asia, with replacements going from the United States for the men moved forward from Western Pacific bases.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Navy aircraft made a devastating strike at North Vietnamese PT boats and their shore bases today in retaliation for the two attacks on American craft in the Tonkin Gulf this week.

Then the Washington government apparently sat back to let the lesson sink in — if it will sink in — with this stern word from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara: "Whether this will be all that is necessary is up to the North Vietnamese."

The account of the explosive U.S. reaction, and the warning, were given by McNamara at a morning news conference, with in hours of a somber announcement by resident Johnson of the decision to hit back hard in reply to the attacks.

In a pre-midnight address to the nation, Johnson said: "That reply is being given as I speak to you."

"Air action is now in execution against gunboats and certain supporting facilities in North Viet Nam which have been used in these hostile operations."

"The determination of all Americans to carry out our full commitment to the government and people of South Viet Nam will be redoubled by this outrage."

In summary, McNamara reported four North Vietnamese torpedo boat bases heavily damaged and one oil depot wrecked in 64 sorties by planes from the aircraft carriers Ticonderoga and Constellation, with 25 PT boats destroyed or damaged.

He gave the U.S. cost as two aircraft downed by ground fire and two damaged.

The action, McNamara said, took place between noon and 4 or 5 p.m. local time Tuesday.

With Vietnamese time 13 hours ahead of Washington, that means the bombs and rockets were falling within a hour after Johnson's report of his decision. Planes doubtless were going aloft as he spoke.

Johnson referred to the U.S. reaction as a "positive reply" to the aggression by North Vietnamese PT boats against Amer-

SHE'S GOT NERVE!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I have a neighbor who is the nerviest person I've ever known, but I hate to hurt her. She walks into my house without knocking and has scared me out of my wits so many times it's not even funny. She opens my refrigerator to see what's there. She lifts the lids off my pots to find out what I am cooking. She even adds water if she thinks it needs it. If a letter happens to be laying around, she'll read it. She has even picked up my husband's check stubs and studied them. I could go on and on. Don't tell me to keep my doors locked. With children it's hard. I have never taken such liberties in her house. Is there some nice way I can put a stop to this? I wouldn't hurt her feelings for the world.

DEVOTED READER
Dear Reader: There is no "nice" way to tell a snoop that she's a snoop. Keep personal mail and check stubs out of sight. And when she adds water to your soup count to ten. But don't complain of HER nerve if YOU haven't the nerve to tell her SHE'S nery!

Dear Abby: How does a 20-year-old girl who has just announced her engagement with intentions to get married next summer tell her parents that she has to get married as soon as possible?

THE GIRL
Dear Girl: In plain English. And fast!

Dear Abby: Where we live, the houses are very close together. Lately, I have seen a boy, who can't be more than nine years old, hanging out of the bathroom window, smoking. I see him almost every day. He is obviously smoking on the Q. T., and blowing the smoke outside. I know his mother just to say "hello" to. Do you think the next time I see her, I should tell her what her son is up to?

A NEIGHBOR
Dear Neighbor: Put yourself in her shoes. If YOU had a child that age, doing what hers was doing, wouldn't you want to be told?

Dear Abby: I appreciated your column on how much satisfaction some of our readers got from giving away the clothing of their loved ones after they had passed away. When my mother died, I couldn't bear to give her clothes away, so I wrapped them in paper and packed them in boxes. Thirty years later, upon opening the boxes, everything was moth-eaten and yellowed with age. How much beloved clothes to have been worn ican naval vessels in international waters.

But he stressed the United States' long-range peaceful intentions.

Even before the strikes began, McNamara disclosed "substantial military forces" were being moved into Southeast Asia as a precaution against a Red counterthrust from North Viet Nam or Red China. He gave some details on that buildup at today's meeting with newsmen.

Missing Man Turns Up Safe

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — Frank W. Meyer, missing for six weeks and presumed dead, turned up Monday complaining that someone had made off with his camper truck.

Meyer told sheriff's officers he had been hiking and camping in Slinson Beach State Park since June 21, the day his truck was found parked on Mount Tamalpais.

Meyer, 41, said he left his home in San Mateo for a church convention in Portland last month, but changed his mind.

He said a day's hike to Slinson Beach proved so pleasant he took a sleeping bag and 25 boxes of C rations from his truck and hiked for six weeks through the park area.

After Meyer's truck was found, deputies and volunteers aided by bloodhounds, helicopters and airplanes searched the area for days.

Poverty Bill Scheduled by House

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $962.5-million war-on-poverty bill bearing the LBJ brand reaches the House floor today, and anxious administration leaders are still checking on their votes.

Three days of debate and amendment have been scheduled for the omnibus bill, which combines attacks on poverty through a youth job corps, community action projects, work-training programs, loans to rural families and many other aspects.

Speaker John W. McCormack said Tuesday he expects a vote on the measure Friday. The speaker and other Democratic House leaders told President Johnson they have high hopes the bill will win House passage.

Republicans have lined up solidly against the administration bill at every step of the way.

Only last week four GOP members of the House Education and Labor Committee said the bill is "beyond repair or redemption through floor amendments."

But the bill's backers plan to offer amendments on the floor which would bring the House measure into line with a $947.5-million bill passed by the Senate.

They believe the Senate changes answer the strongest criticisms that have been raised by the bill's opponents.

Chief among these Senate changes:

Elimination of a provision for grants of up to $1,500 for low-income rural families. Only loans are provided in the Senate bill.

Elimination of a provision by which the director of the program could buy up rural properties, develop the land into family farm units, and sell these to low-income families.

Giving the governors of states veto power over any job corps camp or center in his state.

Banning direct contributions to private agencies in connection with work-training programs.

The job-corps section of the bill is designed to set up conservation camps and job-training centers, patterned somewhat on the old Civilian Conservation Corps of the 1930s. It provides $190 million for this purpose.

Bolling Is Winner in Missouri

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Rep. Richard Bolling of Kansas City's 5th Congressional District survived a challenge and Missouri Democrats apparently nominated Secy. of State Warren E. Hearnes for governor in Tuesday's torrid primary.

Bolling, a member of the powerful House Rules Committee and an administration stalwart, beat back County Judge Hunter Phillips by about two to one — even though Phillips had most of the Democratic factional support.

Hearnes said early today, "The results as they now stand indicate that I have won." His opponent, Lt. Gov. Hilary A. Bush, went to bed without conceding because the race was so close.

But Hearnes' campaign staff was more optimistic and his manager, Delton Houtchens, predicted the final victory margin

Will Shun Nat'l GOP Ticket

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. John V. Lindsay of New York's 67th Congressional district says he'll seek a term as a Republican candidate but "without reference to the national ticket."

Lindsay, 42, said Monday supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, are trying to defeat him by backing Kieran O'Doherty, the Conservative party nominee in the 17th, Manhattan's "silk stocking" district.

"It should be clear that I have no choice but run in this election on my own record without reference to the national ticket," said Lindsay.

With 3,932 of 4,332 precincts tallied, the unofficial count gave Hearnes 64,441, Bush 271,002.

Ethan Shepley of St. Louis won the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Besides Bolling, all eight other congressmen won renomination without any trouble and U.S. Sen. Stuart Symington ran away with the Democratic renomination.

Shorty

A Short Short Story © 1964 by NEA, Inc. OWNERSHIP

By Mary Schaaf

Spring rains came early, as his father predicted. "When blizzards blow in November, winter warms her breath in March."

The windshield wipers stopped with the motor as John parked the car beside the farm house. He'd leave the suitcases in the car till morning. The baggage Trudy gave him for Christmas contained all the worldly goods he owned.

His father opened the kitchen door. The bright rectangle of light cast a welcome glow. Expectancy lit up the old man's face.

Silently, they embraced, prolonging the moment of reunion lest a tear or unsteady voice betray emotion.

"Dad, I'm home."

The old man studied his son with a warm eye and nodded approval. This was his flesh and blood. He was proud of John.

"I've been waiting for you, son. Take off your wet coat."

John removed his coat and hung it in the closet. His father watched him, silently. Too bad, John thought, that "I couldn't live up to all of his expectations. John sat down and leaned his elbows on the table. "Isn't he going to ask about Trudy?" he thought.

Dark haired, laughing, sparkling Trudy, the bride whom he claimed so brief a time.

John met her the previous summer. She came from the city to vacation with cousins on the neighboring farm. The two families were engaged in joint haying operations at the time.

She watched the agrarian drama, to make hay while the sun shines, and was entranced. On the green stage under the blue canopy the shirtless, sun-browned bodies glistened with sweat. The machine's rhythmic formation of bales kept time for flexing muscles. The men caught and stacked the green 50-pound packages of hay.

On warm summer nights and restful Sunday afternoons the young people took time for fun. They invited John along.

Acquaintance developed into friendship. Friendship fired into love between the rugged young farmer and the refined young lady from the city.

They were married in September. "Too much in love too quickly," the cousins admonished.

John's father treasured memories of his own marriage. His son's happiness brought him contentment. He was the first to notice when Trudy grew restless.

The quiet, rural atmosphere and unhurried living of farm routine caused resentment. The privacy of country life became isolation. Her new life was dull, even with the most handsome farmer in the county.

John's father suggested a trip to the city until spring. Perhaps warm weather and the activity of planting season would rekindle Trudy's interest in the farm.

But she did not want to return. Nor did she recognize the bond between her husband and nature. The cement and brick world offered him nothing.

The sights and smells of the familiar kitchen comforted John now. The feeling of home eased his loneliness.

Sitting across the table, his father said, "John, the farm is yours."

The young man stiffened in his chair. "What?"

"My wish has always been for you to have our land. Your grandfather gave me these 180 acres. I kept them for you. You can give them to your son."

The lonely hours of winter had incubated this plan. Ever war of wills, probate courts and inheritance laws, the old man determined to circumvent these procedures. They were legal maneuvers to complicate handing down property to the next generation.

He didn't trust lawyers. Occupied behind desks, what did they know of the chastening of soul and body through manual work?

The trip to the law office was brief. "Put the farm in my son's name," was his request.

Immortality is having a son carry on the family name. Blessed is the man whose son also continues on his work and keeps his property.

The young man slumped forward. His dad didn't understand. He had come home alone; his marriage ended. In the divorce settlement he gave Trudy half of all he owned.

Reds Get Fine Homecoming for Hutchinson

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds planned a perfect homecoming for Fred Hutchinson and they weren't about to let the weather or the Milwaukee Braves get in their way.

It looked for awhile like the Reds wouldn't be able to play one game Tuesday night but before the evening was over they had beaten the Braves twice 5-2 and 4-2.

Hutchinson, who had been hospitalized for a week, returned to the club but left the bench midway through the first game, which was delayed three times by rain. He watched the remainder of the two-night doubleheader from Reds' President Bill DeWitt's box.

The Reds couldn't have put on a better show if they had rehearsed it. The first game was delayed 43 minutes right at the start but when the Reds finally came to bat, Deron Johnson clouted a three-run homer for a quick 3-0 Cincinnati lead.

In between rain delays, the Braves had trimmed Cincinnati's lead to 3-2. But Leo Cardenas' two-run triple in the seventh clinched it.

John Edwards' runproducing single broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning of the nightcap helping the Reds wrap up the sweep.

In other National League action, San Francisco struggled 14 innings before edging New York 4-3, Chicago blanked St. Louis 4-0 and Los Angeles swept a two-night doubleheader from Pittsburgh 5-1 and 10-7.

In the American League, Kansas City downed New York 5-1, Los Angeles blanked Baltimore 5-0, Detroit edged Chicago 4-3, Minnesota whacked Boston 12-3 and Washington whipped Cleveland 4-2.

The Reds' double victory moved Cincinnati within 3½ games of National League-leading Philadelphia and only two games back of the second place Giants.

Jim O'Toole went the route in the nightcap, winning his 12th in 16 decisions. Bob Furkey (5-6) won the opener with ninth inning help from Sammy Ellis.

Hutchinson, fighting a chest cancer, was hospitalized for tests last Monday. The 44-year-old manager spent most of his time in bed but told reporters he had watched some of the Reds' games on television during his hospital stay. He couldn't have enjoyed any of them as much as the double welcome home gift his club presented him with Tuesday.

Jim Davenport's 14th inning hit-and-run single scored Jose Pagan from first and ended another Giants-Mets marathon. San Francisco had taken a 3-1 lead in the 11th on Orlando Cepeda's two-run single but Jim Hickman tied it again for the Mets with a pinch single in the bottom of the inning.

The last time the Giants and Mets played in New York, they went 23 innings and nearly 7½ hours before San Francisco won.

Former Cardinal Lew Burdette pitched his first shutout in more than a year as the Cubs blanked St. Louis. Billy Williams clouted his 25th homer for Chicago and Burdette won his eighth game, seven of them coming after he was traded to the Cubs in May.

Sandy Koufax became the first pitcher to win 16 games but needed ninth inning help from Bob Miller to wrap up the first game victory against the Pirates. Koufax allowed six hits, struck out six and walked five before leaving with the bases loaded in the ninth. Miller got Bob Bailey to line into a double play ending the game.

Willie Davis stole three bases and scored each time to help the Dodgers complete the sweep. Derrell Griffith clubbed a three-run homer in the nightcap and Tommy Davis hit safely in both games running his consecutive game streak to 16.

Racing Figure Dies

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — George M. Gahagan, one of four brothers prominent in harness horse racing, died in a nursing home Tuesday at the age of 81.

Boston Picks Up Indian Release

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Veteran outfielder Al Smith, released by the Cleveland Indians last Friday, has been signed by Boston, a Red Sox spokesman said Tuesday night.

The Sox did not indicate their immediate plans for Smith, but it's believed he will be used chiefly for pinch hitting.

Smith, 36, began his major league career with the Indians 12 years ago and returned to the Tribe last winter in a deal with Baltimore. The Orioles got Willie Kirkland and threw in $50,000 as well.

No-Hit Game Turned in at K Park

By Jimmy Singleton

In the second night of Little League play at K Park last night Lavender Cowboys of Texarkana edged the Junkins Lumber Co. of Texarkana 9 to 8. Johnson was the winning hurler and McNally the loser. Williams hit a grand slam homer for the winners and McNally got three hits for the losers.

Hope's CBC defeated the Davis Lumber Co. of Texarkana 15 to 5 with Putman going all the way. Richardson was the loser. Ward got four hits for Hope; Grear and Richardson got two each for Texarkana.

In the final game of the night Arterberry of the Jennings Hawks hurled a no hitter against the Garland team. Cutshall was the loser. James got three for three for the winners.

Tonight's action sees Liberty Eylau against Offenhauser at 6 p.m.; Midwest goes against Jennings at 8 o'clock.
